

EVERY MAN A GOOD POSITION

GOVERNMENT OFFICIALS
NOW AT GREENLEAF.

S. Merchant Marine and
S. Employment Service
Establish Offices.

located in an office at the M. O. C. are representatives of the United States merchant marine and United States employment service who are prepared to offer each a profitable position as he is charged from army service.

Second Officer of the United States Merchant Marine, V. A. Slater is in operation with the camp personnel and will classify, grade and catalogue many of our soldiers who desire to have the opportunity of traveling to the far ends of the world as merchant marine men, and who realize the educational and financial advantages of this new service.

In the same office will be Andrew McElroy, of Atlanta, Ga., traveling manager for the United States employment service. Mr. McElroy states that he has positions as well as many laborers as possible during the time that the men are to be mustered out of this camp. This is a most exceptional opportunity and one that should be far reaching and complete method in which the government is to take care of those patriotic men who gave their services that we may remain a free nation.

In talking with the men, Mr. Slater is talking about the country, Mr. Slater who seeks men for the merchant marine fleet, provide the shipping board would provide attractive places for one million soldiers as soon as they are released.

No soldier will be signed up in camp, but the advantages of the shipping board work will be pointed out and all men who display an interest will be card catalogued. Mr. Slater will be card catalogued. Mr. Slater will be card catalogued. Mr. Slater will be card catalogued.

Men who have not already a knowledge of these trades will be admitted to a school where they may receive their training, quarters, clothing and food, and be paid $20 a month. Those already skilled in these trades may receive positions paying salaries according to the scale. Not only are the men gathered by Mr. Slater to be used to man the merchant marine, but also an equally attractive opportunity is presented in the positions now opened in our many shipyards.

WOUNDED ARRIVE

Many Soldiers From Overseas Without Funds.

HOW SHALL WE TREAT OUR ENEMIES?

The International Sunday School Lesson for Dec. 15 is "Joseph Forgives His Brothers."

Genesis xiv:1-15.

It was a long way from a cistern in Dothan to the prime minister's throne in Egypt; just as it has been a long way from Liege to Versailles; but the end of the road was sure in both cases. Truth always reaches her goal, though her pathway may be long and devious. That must be so for if there is not justice rampant in the universe, then there is no God. The faith that kept Joseph going was the faith that sustained the allied nations to the end, a basic belief in God and in his care for righteousness. Joseph's story is no more romantic than the story of the life of Jesus. The brothers of Joseph had created a new status for themselves, in which there was no petty squabbling and no recriminations. Nevertheless, a guilt which would have created a barrier between Joseph and the ten other sons of his father. He had been overtaken by the evil of his own people. He had been overtaken by the evil of his own people. He had been overtaken by the evil of his own people.

WRONG MUST BE RIGHTED

Lord Northcliffe Declares Denmark Should Be Given the Right of Self-Determination.

London, Dec. 12.—Dr. Moeller, Danish Lord Northcliffe, has secured an interview with Lord Northcliffe for the publication of Copenhagen, stating that the English journalist as saying that the wrong which Denmark suffered in 1864, must be righted as a public international law. The Danish Lord Northcliffe, who is the correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph, said that the right of self-determination should be given to the people of Denmark.

Schleswig-Holstein was taken from Denmark by Prussia and Austria in 1864, but two years later the territory was annexed by Prussia. An earlier correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph said that Schleswig-Holstein was declared for a republic in a few days.

EFFORTS TO THWART NATION'S WAR PLANS

SENSATIONAL ACCUSATION AGAINST BERGER.

Circulation of "St. Louis Platform" Direct Offense of Five Defendants.

Chicago, Dec. 12.—Sensational accusations charging that a great "revolt machine" was attempted by Victor Berger, congressman-elect of Milwaukee, and his four co-defendants, on trial under the espionage act, before Judge Landis, are outlined in the hearing of the evidence against the indicted men.

It is also charged by the government, as outlined in the opening address to the jury, that the defendants made use of the socialist party, of which they are all leaders, in their efforts to thwart the nation's war plans and to spread seeds of sedition and disloyalty.

Among other things that Assistant United States Attorney Joseph B. Fleming said the government would show was "that Berger printed several dozens of pro-German editorials in his newspaper, the Milwaukee Leader, and gave instructions that emphasis and precedence were to be given to Berlin dispatches."

Circulation of the "proclamation" known as the "St. Louis platform," the official presentation of the stand of the socialist party, was directly charged as being an offense committed by the five defendants.

Charged With Violation of the Espionage Law.
